Education and Experience

Monica Edlauer earned her Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education and Contemplative Psychology, with a minor in Traditional Eastern Arts from Naropa University in May 2000. She then earned her Master of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine degree from Southwest Acupuncture College in August 2007. This four-year program consists of 3000 hours of education, including over 1000 hours of clinical practice. Monica is certified as a Diplomat of Acupuncture by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM). This includes certification in Clean Needle Technique and Injection Therapy. None of these licenses, certificates, or registrations has ever been suspended or revoked.

Monica's training includes adjunctive therapies such as moxabustion, electrostimulation, tui na, shiatsu, auriculotherapy, cupping, injection therapy, herbal medicine, and dietary and lifestyle recommendations. She is also is certified as a Jin Shin Tara advanced practitioner.

Monica is a member of the Acupuncture Association of Colorado.

The clinic complies with all rules and regulations promulgated by the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment, including the proper cleaning and sterilization of needles used in the practice of Acupuncture and the sanitation of acupuncture offices. We only use single use, disposable, factory sanitized needles in this clinic.

Patient's Rights

- The patient is entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, and the duration of therapy, if known.
- The patient may seek a second opinion from another healthcare professional or may terminate therapy at any time.
- In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the Director of the Division of Registrations in the Department of Regulatory Agencies.
